POLICY

ON

DETERMINATION OF MATERIALITY

OF

EVENTS OR INFORMATION

I. Introduction

Pursuant to Regulation 30 of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 ("Listing Regulations"), every Listed Company shall frame a policy for determining materiality of an event or information.

This Policy for Determination of Materiality of Events or Information (the "Policy") is aimed at providing guidelines to the Management of the Company, to determine the materiality of events or information, which could affect the investment decisions and ensure timely and adequate dissemination of information to the Stock Exchanges and investors.

Information relating to material events and which is price sensitive in nature, shall be promptly disseminated to the Stock Exchanges. For this purpose, material event means any information which relates to the Company and which, if published is likely to materially affect the price of shares of the Company.

II. Applicability

The Company shall make disclosure of events specified in Annexure-1 (with reference to Para A of Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations, and as may be amended from time to time), without applying any test of materiality to the Stock Exchanges within specified timelines.

The Company shall make disclosure of events specified in Annexure-2 (with reference to Para B of Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations, and as may be amended from time to time), based on application of the guidelines for materiality, to the Stock Exchanges within specified timelines as specified in this policy. The criteria for identifying materiality of events is as follows:

Qualitative Criteria for Materiality:

- (a) The omission of an event or information, which is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly;
- (b) The omission of an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date;
- (c) In case where the criteria specified in sub-clauses (a) and (b) are not applicable, an event/information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of the Board of Directors of the Company, the event / information is considered material.

Quantitative Criteria for Materiality:

- (a) Where the value involved or the impact exceeds Rs. 100 Crore in terms of the Gross Turnover or Revenue or 10% of the Gross Turnover (lower threshold shall be considered)

(b) The above thresholds shall be determined on the basis of audited consolidated financial statements of the Company's last audited financial year

The quantitative criteria shall be read in conjunction with the qualitative criteria for determining materiality and arriving at the overall decision on the event reported.

The Company shall make disclosures of any events or information which, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, is material. In case where an event occurs or information is available with the Company, which has not been indicated above, but which may have material effect on it, the Company would make adequate disclosures in regard thereof.

III. Disclosures by the Company

The Company shall make disclosure of material events or transactions to the Stock Exchanges within 24 hours of occurrence of event or information. In case, the disclosure is made after 24 hours, then the Company should provide an explanation for the delay in intimation.

Explanation: For the purpose of this policy occurrence of event or information shall mean the date of approval of the Board. In other cases, where no Board Resolution is required then, occurrence of event or information shall mean the date on which the Company becomes aware about the event/information.

The Company shall make disclosures updating the material developments pertaining to material events on a regular basis, till such time the event is resolved/closed, and to be disclosed to the Stock Exchanges with relevant explanations and the same shall be disclosed on the website of the Company i.e. www.ansals.com for a minimum period of five year.

The Company shall also disclose all events or information with respect to subsidiaries which are material, if any, for the Company.

IV. Authorization for disclosures

Mr. Kaushal Kumar Singhal, Executive Director of the Company and Mr. S.N. Grover, Addl. V.P. & Company Secretary of the Company be and are hereby authorized to assess the materiality of events to be disclosed and for making disclosures to the Stock Exchanges. The details of the persons authorized by the Board of Directors from time to time shall be informed to the Stock Exchanges and shall also be made available at Company's Website.
